In Memory Of

Mr. Charles D. Barrett—Guidance Counselor

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you
for a little while—
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

—Helen Steiner Rice

In Memory Of

Mrs. Annavee McKinney—English Teacher & Senior Sponsor

LIFE'S MIRROR

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

Give love, and love to your life will flow,
A strength in your utmost need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your work and deed.

Give truth, and your gift will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet;
And the smile which is sweet will surely find
A smile that is just as sweet.

For life is the mirror of king and slave,
Tis just what we are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have
And the best will come back to you.
—Madeline S. Bridges

What Happens Next?

You may be interested in learning a trade . . . or in going to college. But sooner or later, you–members of the class of '70–will be looking for jobs.

When you do, you'll face a challenge greater than that which has confronted any graduating class before.

Where do you go from here? That depends largely on you–first, on how well you prepare yourself for today's jobs. And then, finally, how you apply your new knowledge and ability.
